JAPANESE DRIVE RUSSIANS BACK

Detachments Occupying Da Pass Retire Before Advancing Column.

MOVEMENT BEGAN ON LINTSINTIN

Nogi Being Constantly Reinforced and Next Assault on Port Arthur Will Probably be Tremendous Affair. German Steamer Captured.

(By Associated Press.) MUKDEN, Nov. 21,—The Russian de-tachments occupying Da Pass have rebefore the Japanese column, one thousand strong.

The Japanese are reported to be ad wancing toward Sintsintin.

(By Associated Press.)

MUKDEN, November 21.—The anticipated general attack by the Japanese has not developed as yet. The uncertainty of the present situation gives rise to conflicting rumors and speculation regarding future operations. Some expect the Japanese to attempt a wide flanking movement on Tee Pass, and others claim the armies will practically winter in their present positions. Complete interpresent positions. the armies will practically winter in their present positions. Complete inactivity prevails. The nights are growing colder and fuel is scarcer. Crowds of Chinese are wandering over the fields and roads picking up everything combustible, even the roots of Chinese corn.

Via Tien Tsin, Nov. 21.—Bince the Japanese failed in the attack which they made on Poutlioff Hill, November 18th, the old order of affairs has been resumed. There are frequent skirmishes, particularly in the vicinity of the custain center, where both sides have daily clashed.

It appears that the affair of November It appears that the affair of November 18th was a reconnoissance in force, and that had it been successful, it was to be followed by a general attack.

The Japanese got within thirty paces of the Russian outpost positions before being driven back. They left over a hundred dead on the field. The Russian soldiers are quite comfortable in their durants.

BBRLIN, November 2.—A uspatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Mukden, under to-day's date, says:

"The reconnoissance fights have assumed a more violent character during the past few days. Particularly hot was the fighting on Poutiloff Hill (Lone Tree Hill), where the Japanese were repulsed with the loss of over one hundred killed. All signs indicate that great events are imminent. The road to Somintin, owing to the excellent patrol service, is quite safe from Chinese bandits, thus guaranteeing unhindered communication with Tien Tsin and establishing a second line of intercourse with the outside world.

"The health of the troops is excellent.

"The Russians admire the cleanliness, perfect order and equipment of the Japanese. One does not see any trace of race hatred. It is a fact that the Japanese return through French intermediation all valuables found on dead Russians. This has made a deep impression here, and is reciprocated."

PETERSBURG, November 21.— il Kuropatkin, telegraphing under lay's date, reports a daring deed accomplished by four volunteers of a Russian patrol November 16th. While reconnoitering the putrol discovered a Chinese building occupied by twenty-five Japanese. Two riflemen volunteered to blow up the place, and armed with Men worn out." Japanese. Two riflemen volunteered to blow up the place, and armed with grenades londed with proxylin, the rifle-men succeeded in evading the sentries, placed the grenades and retired unde-tected. When Japanese rein-forcements arrived, they found all the occupants dead or wounded among the rules.

Japanese official among the latest arrivals from Dalny, states positively that the general attack upon Port Arthur has not been resumed. Rumors to that effect in Dalny, have arisen because fresh troops, including the Seventh Division

It is believed that the explosion which took place on November 18th occurred in some counter-tunneling work.

The second explosion which was heard on November 19th, was much heavier, and it is reported upon the best authority was due to the blowing up of a Russian magazine. It is expected that the next attack upon Port Arthur will be a tremendous affair. More reinforcements are coming to the support of General Nogithan those dispatched to Field Marshal Oyama.

The Japanese are now constructing coast defense forts at rigeon Bay, which is ac cepted as an indication that they expect to be defending Port Arthur themselves

LEXINGTON, K.Y., November 21.—The funeral of Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge, held here this afternoon, was the largest since the funeral of Henry Clay and Senator James B. Beck. Leading citizens from all over the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, and lawyers and prominent men of other cities were present. All the local civic bodies, Confederate comrades of Colonel Breckinridge, men bers of the Fayette county bar and other bodies to which the deceased beinged, formed part of the procession which scorted the body to the cemetery. The services were held in the First Presbyierian Church, of which Colonel Breckinridge had been a member for over a quarter of a century. City offices and all business houses were closed during the funeral hours. One of the most attractive and costly floral designs was sent by Caleb Powers, now in fall at Louisville, charged with the Goebel murder. Colonel Breckinridge had made a vigorous fight in Powers's behalf, and had done much in editorial utterances to procure for Powers an unblased jury.

PRESIDENT WRITES WISHING SUCCESS

Grover Cleveland and Many Others Commend Movement to Build Up Magnificent University in Virginia Will Leave No Stone Unturned.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., NO ember 21.—In response to a request om The Times-Dispatch, President Alferman to-night gave out the following tatement concerning the proposed Thomas Jefferson memorial fund:

"At the annual meeting of the General Alumni Association, held at the University in June last, Mr. Robert Lee Preston offered a resolution emeral Alumni Association, held at the University in June last, Mr. Robert Lee Preston offered a resolution embodying the action of the Washington chapter of the association, proposing the raising of a suitable endowment for the University. This resolution was endorsed and adopted by the General Association. The Washington committee consisted of Thomas Nelson Page (chairman), ex-Senator Charles J. Faulkner, ex-Secretary Hilary A. Horbert, Samuel Spencer, Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D., Cazenove G. Lee and Robert Lee Preston.

"During the summer this committee, through its chairman, has been in touch with the president, and dean of the University, and the plans have been fully matured. The announcement appearing to-day is simply the first public announcement of the plan and scope of the endowment. The committee in charge of the movement are in earnest. They believe that this fund can be arranged, and they know that such a fund is the supreme need of the University. They will leave no stone unturned to make a success of the movement.

"The supreme need of Southern education, after provision for the education, after provision for the education of the people, is the development of at least one-great modern University of wide scope and of aniphe means to carry on the great processes of teaching and investigation. Logically, historically and geographically, the University of Virginia is the place for the development of such an institution. Here is an opportunity for every friend of higher education in the national angle to serve the country, for the University of Virginia is not a sectional sinstitution. While it has served Virgina and the South and always will serve them, one-half of its 700 students are from thirly nine American Studes.

"Having embarked upon this movement, it is neonocivable that there should be fullure. To fail would be publishing to the world that the institution must content itself with a secondary place among the great universities of the country in scone of work at least.

Germany and Austria to Unite in Weeding Out Products of United States.

(Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.
Copyright, 1904, by Malcoim Clarke.)
BERLIN, November 21.—Germany and Austria are to unite their forces in a determined effort to keep American products out of the market in the two countries. As the outcome of the trip of the Minister of the Interior, Count Pasadowsk Welmer, to Vienna, the parliaments of both are to pass a prohibitive tariff law, which will serve the double purpase of helping to put monoy into the empty treasuries and aiding the smaller manufacturers and dealers, who are suffering most from American competition.
The tariff will be especially directed against American leather and tobacco, which have made especially heavy inroads
upon the business of the home manufacturers.
